

FRIDAY • DYDD GWENER 28-03-25

14.00 The Cathedral and the Sea

Explore the Cathedral's links to the sea and seafarers through the ages. A tour of the unseen places of St Davids Cathedral by Mari James of the Cathedral Library. Did you know the Cathedral has graffiti from grateful returning seafarers? That St Nicholas is the patron saint of sailors, as well as of children? From the 6th century when Dewi Sant, St David, and his followers would travel by sea rather than land, to the 200th anniversary of the RNLi. Come and be enthralled at the stories the Cathedral has to tell.

Venue: St Davids Cathedral

£5. Booking essential: [www.stdavids cathedral.org.uk/Events](http://www.stdavids cathedral.org.uk/Events)

17.00 The Sea! The Seaside!

Talk by Juliet Heslewood, author and art historian. How the sea and the seashore have been depicted throughout the history of art, from the Romans through to Rembrandt, Turner, Nolde, and to the work of our contemporary Pembrokeshire artist, Mike Perry.

Venue: Tŵr y Felin Hotel

£8. Proceeds to Eco Dewi. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on the door.
